ARIES

Love Aries 2025: if you want to try to woo someone you like then you absolutely must take advantage of the winter and spring months because Jupiter will be in Gemini until the first days of June and Mars will also be positive. For example, a very good moment to make it clear to the one you like is from April 19 to June 17, 2025 with Mars in Leo. This phase of the year will be effective for magnetising someone, for attracting to you a person who interests you so much. The following months, in fact, will be much more complicated and will bring, for many of you, various illusions as well as disappointments. The reason for this is the new transit of Jupiter which moves into Cancer, therefore in quadrature with your natal Sun. If your love affair has been consolidated in winter and spring then you will not have to do anything but experience only slight problems and misunderstandings typical of romantic relationships, but if the relationship is in crisis then perhaps a serious decision will have to be taken. In particular, the worst period, the most nervous, will be from 7 August to 22 September 2025 when Mars will unfortunately go into opposition and you will be agitated, nervous, even for other reasons, but you will probably unload all your anger and disappointment on the person at your side. As far as lonely hearts are concerned, the second half of the year will be very complicated because of Jupiter in Cancer. You may meet someone you like but then you will realise that they are not the right person and you will experience a moment, even a few months, of melancholy and sadness. Therefore, try to be cautious with new encounters after the summer. This is not the right year to take the decision to get married or live together or even to have a child unless you make these important choices at the beginning of the year and by the end of spring 2025. Some of you may act too much on instinct and dive into an extramarital affair.

Job - career - money Aries 2025: certainly, as far as your professional and social life is concerned, the transits of the planets, considering only Jupiter and Saturn, will be fundamental in helping you consolidate the goals you have already achieved, but you need to get moving and act before the beginning of the summer because Jupiter will be in quadrature from June and we know how much his quadrature can create illusions, mishaps, make you fall victim to deception, betrayal and exaggerations that can also concern money. The first part of the year is therefore excellent for looking for a job, for studying more, for strengthening the position you already have or for changing jobs, even for changing city and job, but stop in the summer, don't go too far because you could risk too much and find yourself very dissatisfied. Calmness is the virtue of the strong, and you will have to use it in the second half of this year, when Saturn also arrives in your sign of the zodiac after about 30 years, asking you to be very serious, to take on exaggerated responsibilities and to mature, which if you don't have, you will have to do whatever it takes, otherwise you will pay the consequences. So, after June, do not change your job unless you are forced to by events, do not invest money in unclear agreements and deals and avoid buying a house or spending money on situations that will not be rewarding at all and which could even lead to legal problems. Perhaps a collaboration, a company will end in an unpleasant way and the most stressful period, the most nervous in which you could say everything you think and ruin everything, is that with Mars in Libra, exactly from 7 August to 22 September 2025. If you are a student, take advantage of the first 5 months of the year to take exams, competitions, interrogations because the second part of 2025 will be much more tiring and will require a considerable level of maturity which, if you are too young, you do not yet have.

Luck - fitness Aries 2025: in order to understand how work, family life and love can affect your physical fitness we must observe the transits of Mars during the year. So the worst period will be the one in which the planet will transit in Libra, therefore opposite to your native Sun, exactly from 7th August to 22nd September 2025. So a couple of months in which everything and the opposite of everything could happen, considering also Jupiter in quadrature. You will be too agitated, nervous, stressed because of personal or professional situations that do not go as you would like and consequently you will have to face a considerable drop in energy that could lead to physical discomfort that should not be underestimated. From July to November, you will have Uranus in your third astrological sector and your travels could be longer than in the past, allowing you to unplug and recover your energy, but with the previous transit of Uranus in the second house, if you have created financial debts and accumulated many expenses, you may have to move to find solutions to these financial problems. Spring, however, is very beautiful and comes after a series of equally beautiful winter months in which you will be quite happy, serene and in tune with the world around you. Let's not forget that after about 30 years Saturn returns to your sign of the zodiac and, especially in the second half of 2025, you will have to evolve and mature in order to avoid serious difficulties. Those who are over 40 years of age could see a few more hairs appear or feel more tired, or even decide to live more solitary moments. People will notice that you have much less desire to have fun, but on the other hand they will notice a greater wisdom in you if you have decided to mature and accept the responsibilities that will come along. If you want to travel for fun then do so from January to May.

And if you have ascendant in ...

Aries: A very good year to pursue certain personal, professional and sentimental situations. If you are self-employed your clients should increase while if you work within a company you will be able to reach excellent levels and feel more appreciated by others.

Taurus: undoubtedly you have to push on the accelerator in the second part of the month and not in the first part where Jupiter will not be easy to manage transiting in Gemini and forming a quadrature with Saturn in Pisces. This is a period in which you need to mature a lot and leave superficiality behind.

Gemini: if you have lived a critical past year with regard to physical fitness then you must wait until the first part of the year to recover. Work is satisfactory throughout the year and you can start with various projects but do not give up on your love life that you may have underestimated.

Cancer: spectacular start to the year that is nothing more than a continuation of the old year 2024 but in which you can collect even more. If you do not get distracted then achieve unthinkable goals in addition acquiring the support of Jupiter from the month of June, you will be absolutely very well prepared for further successes.

Leo: many satisfactions between the months of January and May but with the arrival of Jupiter in Cancer you will be less serene and it will be necessary to pay attention to physical fitness that will not allow you to be rewarded by the results achieved and for which you have sown so much in recent months. Do not underestimate a love encounter.

Virgo: an excellent year even if the heaviness of Saturn will be felt very much in various periods of it. Great responsibilities to be accepted in the professional, sentimental, family and private spheres. You must not give up because Saturn wants to challenge you and you must be stronger than everything and everyone.

Libra: very interesting the first part of the year with Jupiter in Gemini but thinking about the second part of this 2025 it must be said that working life is quite interesting and you can sow to reap in the first part of the year. Various opportunities coming up for those looking for work.

Scorpio: the astrological sky is favored by the transit of Saturn in Pisces and Jupiter in the ascendant sign that allows you to be very serene. In the work environment you must be careful not to underestimate occasions in which, because of some mistake, you risk taking steps backwards.

Sagittarius: with Jupiter in Gemini before June 2025 you will not easily reach levels of satisfaction in both love and work, also because the quadrature of Saturn will continue throughout the year. So keep your eyes open, be content with what will come and do not ask too much.

Capricorn: a complicated moment in the first part of the year with inefficient Jupiter in Gemini but the following months are all quite lucky if you are committed and if you believe above all in yourself, in your innate qualities. You should not give up on sentimental life and rather think of an important step to take in love.

Aquarius: an ideal astrological configuration that provides for moments of emotional solidity alternating with moments of great superficiality but in which, thanks to your innate creativity, you will be able to achieve various goals. Be careful with your expenses, be careful not to make financial investments that are absolutely to be avoided.

Pisces: Saturn in conjunction with the Ascendant. Not even the transit of Jupiter in Cancer will be able to help you much during this last heavy year, in which you will have to fight hard to achieve minimum satisfaction but in which you will risk to take huge steps backwards like shrimps.

TAURUS

Love Taurus 2025: certainly this is a period of harvest for all of you even at the sentimental level as that Jupiter transiting in the second house indicates that you can get what you want inside your heart at last. In short, if you have planted the seeds of a new love in recent months, now is the time to enjoy what is coming. If you are in love with someone then you must prepare the ground for a spectacular second half of the year in which, with the support of Jupiter from Cancer, you will almost certainly take important fundamental decisions. If your love affair has only just begun, you will want to consolidate it by introducing it to many other people, otherwise, if you have been in a love affair for several months or years, the time is ripe to make a choice, such as choosing a wedding date, moving in with someone else or trying to find a valid solution to the need for a new house. If you take advantage of the first five months of the year, when you will be well supported by Saturn in Pisces, then after June you will finally be able to realise your dream of love. However, do not underestimate the importance of some planetary transits of Mars, which, especially in spring but also in some summer months, will create tension, uncertainty, discomfort and misunderstandings in your relationship. Proceed with great caution, do not exaggerate with words and gestures if you want to continue the relationship and know how to wait before taking a risky step. If you are lonely hearts, the best months of the year in which you will have an excellent charm, definitely on the rise, are those from June 18 to August 6, 2025 and the month of December, in its second half, however. You will have various opportunities to meet new people and with Jupiter in Cancer your heart will be inflamed with romance and also with a very strong passion that you should absolutely use. In short, this will be a year in love, in which you will be able to take advantage of the opportunities that come your way while deciding to mature and evolve.

Job - career - money Taurus 2025: perhaps this is one of the best years if we look back at the last 5. In the meantime, Jupiter will never be negative for the whole 12 months and Saturn will only be annoying in the months in which it transits in Aries, therefore behind you, creating a lot of physical tiredness but above all the need to fight a lot before obtaining what you want in the work sector. Let's say that at certain times of the year you will have the support of Mars and you will therefore necessarily have to act, implement the project that you have in mind because when Jupiter is in transit in Cancer and therefore in your third zodiacal sector, you will be able to take enormous steps forward, such as to achieve objectives which you have perhaps been thinking about for many months or even years. Big gains or important economic investments. Money, with Jupiter in the second house in the first 5 months, will allow you to act much better than in the past, but if from January to May you have to spend a lot, from June you will be able to recover money which will then circulate even more in your pockets. If you are without a job, the most important phase of this period will be in the second half of 2025 when you will realise that you are more appreciated for your qualities and that you can be helped and supported much more than in the past. There will be a lot of travel after June for work reasons but also a lot of luck in agreements and business. Jupiter, in fact, when transiting in the second house, signals a probable agreement, the start of a company which offers you the chance to make better use of your ideas. You need to be very decisive, study a lot and be prepared because opportunities in the workplace will come and they will be many, but you will have to know how to choose the right ones for you. This is an excellent year to buy a house, to carry out important internal restructuring work on the house where you live and to change town if the place where you live or work is no longer what you want.

Luck - fitness Taurus 2025: Jupiter, Saturn and Uranus will hardly ever be negative during this year, which means you will be able to defeat any complicated situation that comes your way. Only the months when Saturn will be behind you, those from May 26th 2025 to September 1st 2025, could make your energy drop, make you very tired and sometimes exhausted, very lonely and quiet. The truth is that this is a year of great inner maturation and in which you will better understand what your body and mind want. Evolution is a key word when Saturn is in a good position in the zodiacal circle with respect to your sun sign. The physical form will be very bad with the transit of Mars in Scorpio from September 23 to November 4, 2025 but also in spring its quadrature from Leo could make you tired and nervous. Try to be cautious, not to exaggerate with food and possible vices, do not underestimate the importance of resting and recovering energy and interact calmly with those people who do not agree with what you are doing. As we have said with regard to love and work, when Jupiter is in transit in Cancer, and therefore after June 2025, you will have the opportunity to travel a lot, perhaps not very far but frequent, trips in which you can have fun and rest, rediscovering the right balance between mind, body and spirit that you risk losing for a few months. Stressful journeys should be avoided only when Saturn is behind you. In conclusion, we can say that this is a year in which you will be able to make great strides forward, reap the fruits of your sowing, also thanks to random events of fate, because you will often find yourself in the right place at the right time and you will probably meet some important and influential people who will give you a considerable hand in achieving the goals you have set for yourself. Enjoy this wonderful year.

And if you have ascendant in ...

Aries: this will not be a great year in its second half and you must be able to make do with what comes without expecting too much. Unfortunately both the position of Jupiter and Uranus but also that of Saturn are not too positive to make progress, improve your love life and also your work life.

Taurus: good moment for you both physically and at work with a good chance of concluding good business deals, to carry on profitable collaborations and to realize dreams and projects that you have thought about a lot during the past months. Great vitality and creativity for all of you.

Gemini: the first part of the year will be slightly better because Jupiter transits on your Ascendant but do not think to reach excellent goals because things will not go so well with Saturn in quadrature from the Pisces zodiac sign. You have to know how to be satisfied and grit your teeth.

Cancer: a second half of the year rather positive and in which you could achieve excellent goals and then live off the profits of Jupiter in Cancer, but that will be a support and will help to plant the seeds for the future. In fact, the planet could get you out of a few problems.

Leo: a second part of the year not easy with Jupiter behind you while the first part is certainly more fun and less troublesome to live with progress at work after perhaps having experienced a phase to begin with economic losses and various discomforts in the professional and even personal environment.

Virgo: a very good year because Jupiter and Uranus are positive but you must be very careful with your body, the treatment of any discomfort due to Saturn that is in opposition to your ascendant and therefore debilitates the body but also the mind and spirit. Do not waste too much energy resources in this period.

Libra: a year that improves decidedly with Jupiter in Gemini until June and that involves improvements in the work environment but also sentimental as well as family and economic. Obviously we hope that the second part of this 2025 will not create too many problems difficult to solve even with negative Jupiter.

Scorpio: very bad the first 5 months of this year in which you risk to lose your job but also simply to spend too much money unnecessarily and to be disappointed or deceived by someone but the second part of the year will be excellent and then recover after the first 5 months will be possible for all of you.

Sagittarius: everything better with the arrival of Jupiter in the zodiac sign Cancer from the beginning of June 2025. You will no longer suffer its opposition and your delusions of grandeur could end up in a reality that was really very hard and complicated to manage. Avoid unnecessary expenses and do not believe those who make impossible promises.

Capricorn: bad sky in the first part of the year with Jupiter opposed to your zodiacal ascendant. Surely you will not be able to mature, become more responsible, even be more fortunate and realize various projects that will allow you to live off your income. So a less exciting year.

Aquarius: an excellent project can be carried out until June when the transit of Jupiter in Gemini will favor your progress and not only in the professional sector. After a good phase at the beginning of the year, luck will be less with you and many situations will definitely slow down from June.

Pisces: an unforgettable year in its second part where you can really realize many of your dreams but do not tire in the first part with the quadrature of Jupiter in Gemini. You will be disappointed or deluded by someone or even simply by yourself. You will therefore need to keep your feet planted on the ground.

GEMINI

Love Gemini 2025: the influence of Jupiter in your sign of the zodiac is obviously not yet over and you will notice this also in the sentimental sector which will be absolutely favoured by this transit but also by that of Saturn when it enters for some months, in the sign of the zodiac Aries, forming a splendid sextile. Therefore, a couple of periods must be distinguished in this 2025. First of all, with Saturn in Pisces, you will have to understand well how to develop your love story because this Saturn in quadrature asks for much maturity and superficial attitudes in love relationships will be absolutely harmful. If your love life is in a phase of evolution, then you will arrive in the summer with some important projects to fulfil, which could also involve marriage, a child or living together in a new house. All this because while Saturn will move into Aries, helping to consolidate the relationship, Jupiter will be in Cancer and transiting in your second sector of the zodiac will bring what you have sown in recent months. So, if your intention, for example, is to have a baby and you have worked hard in recent months, the happy news could arrive after June. Marriage is also very probable, but if we are talking about people who have been alone for a short or long time, then even better, because here we are talking about exceptional encounters, encounters in which you will perhaps meet your soul mate who will help you reach incredible levels of happiness. Probably with a person who has been a friend for many years, the spark of love will be ignited and the relationship between you will change in an unexpected but pleasant way. This is a good time to buy a house and move in with the person you love if you are no longer in tune with your parents and feel the need for more freedom in your relationship. Open your heart to love throughout the year and it will fill your heart with joy.

Job - career - money Gemini 2025: here is one of the best years relatively to the last 12 may. This is harvest time in fact. Let's say that from January to May 2025, with the presence of Jupiter in your sky, you will still be able to cultivate, sow, prepare the ground for a fabulous harvest which will come later, exactly after June but in particular during the last 4 months of the year. Don't overlook important decisions to be taken at work, which will be fundamental for the coming months, because if you don't know how to make the right choices, or worse, you stop and think, missing opportunities, then you won't be able to reap anything or almost anything later. Jupiter provides opportunities, but they must be seized. So if you are without a job, if you are tired of what you currently have and wish to change, during the first 5 months you will think about changes which will be implemented definitively after June. You could also just change jobs within the same workplace or decide to change cities. Don't support people who only seem to get in your way and want to deceive you, but go ahead with your own head which seems to have winning ideas. Have lots of job interviews and don't be demoralised if some of them don't go well because long before the end of the year you will be able to fulfil yourself in your professional life. However, beware of a phase of fatigue with Saturn in Pisces for many more months. Work will be really debilitating, very tiring, and in some cases you will have to stop, not get stressed, but know how to hold on, recover energy and then start again. Some journeys will be fundamental in order to understand how to move around at work as well as financially. If you intend to buy a house or a very expensive piece of equipment for your work, do so with Jupiter in Gemini and therefore in your sign of the zodiac because it will be a much desired but much appreciated purchase.

Luck - fitness Gemini 2025: Jupiter has been in your sign of the zodiac for many months now, exactly since the second half of the previous year and during this 2025 it will always be in your sky until the first days of June 2025. Here is where luck will still be with you but it will not end with its new transit through Cancer, it will only move to another sector of the zodiac, the second sector, that of earnings as well as acquisitions in various sectors of life. Obviously, astrology allows us to know which are the best periods, the luckiest ones in which there could be various favourable opportunities, but it will be up to you to decide whether to seize them or not. In short, your destiny is always and only yours to decide. As far as physical fitness is concerned, Saturn will obviously be very stressful for several months except when it is in Aries and exactly from May 26, 2025 until September 1, 2025. Fortunately Mars will almost never be negative and only between November and December, when it will be opposite, could create a notable drop in energy, a physical discomfort that should not be overlooked as well as a lot of tiredness and a very low level of creativity. You too will have to mature a great deal and the choices you make in every sector of your life will obviously be challenges, obstacles in which your qualities and your level of maturity will come to the fore. Don't be too superficial, but before making choices and decisions, think very carefully and in some cases ask for advice from someone who is more experienced than you. In fact, don't forget that Jupiter in conjunction also indicates the arrival of people who will be absolutely advantageous for your progress. Not too much travelling is expected during this year and it would be better to avoid the periods when Saturn is in Pisces in order to avoid tiring your body as well as your mind. From June to September, on the other hand, with Saturn in sextile from the zodiac sign Aries, you can really enjoy yourself and take very pleasant trips.

And if you have ascendant in ...

Aries: wonderful year in which you can do so many things, take initiatives both in the work sector and economic and sentimental especially in reference to the first part with Jupiter in Gemini while in the second part you have to go forward with your feet in all areas, especially in work.

Taurus: the first 5 months are excellent, supported not only by Jupiter in the second house but also by Saturn in Pisces. Your romanticism will be in decline but you will acquire a greater sense of responsibility in the sentimental sphere and in the family. In short, this is a year in which many of you will evolve inwardly.

Gemini: a rather pleasant moment that concerns the first part of the year with Jupiter in Gemini and that allows you to be more optimistic and have more confidence in yourself as well as recover energy after a rather complicated period. After June you will feel that you are new and different people, more serene.

Cancer: giving up love is not possible for people as sensitive as you are and among other things also very attractive. This sky favors opportunities to meet someone who can make your heart beat faster but you have to put aside that sense of lightness and superficiality that certainly does not go well in love.

Leo: wonderful the first part of the year while in its second part unfortunately you will be forced to resist going to meet some slight difficulty, some annoying situation not very easy to solve. Conclusion of agreements not positive and perhaps a separation of love but new opportunities will arrive soon.

Virgo: the transit of Jupiter unfortunately cannot do much with Saturn in opposition from the zodiacal sign Pisces but certainly the first part of the year favors work and falling in love even if it will not be easy to maintain what you have achieved in the following months. Jupiter helps from June, however.

Libra: don't be too pessimistic, but don't believe that you are immortal either. This seems to be a year in which you must know how to be content without asking too much of fate to avoid taking steps backward rather than forward. Work and love opportunities are coming in the first part of the year.

Scorpio: supported by the planet Saturn that is in Pisces, you will live a quite serene year, calm, without big events. Jupiter is good for your ascendant sign and forms a trigon with your zodiac sign, with the natal Sun and therefore you will be taken away but also offered in some cases.

Sagittarius: your astrological combination is not absolutely negative but surely the first part of the year, with Jupiter opposite the ascendant and the contemporary quadrature of Saturn, will not help much to realize certain projects that perhaps will have to be re-evaluated and left out in some cases.

Capricorn: well the working sector that enjoys a good stability and also the economic one that enjoys an excellent security. This is still a year in which to sow and reap a lot but in its first 5 months and without getting distracted because Saturn asks for awareness of your qualities and goals to be achieved.

Aquarius: during the first 5 months of the year, get busy and make some choices, some decisions, avoiding making mistakes because if you avoid creating messes and confusion in your work and economic life, in the second part of the year, with Jupiter in Cancer, you will be quite serene.

Pisces: a good moment for you, a moment of strong awareness of the qualities that you possess and that you can achieve and of great inner serenity that will allow you to mature and evolve further and from June onwards we are convinced that you will obtain immense satisfaction. Even in love, lightning is likely to strike.

CANCER

Love Cancer 2025: perhaps you've been lonely hearts for a long time or you've been together with someone for many years and now it's time for a change. What is certain is that all the changes you make in your love life will be positive. Lonely hearts will have the right opportunity to meet someone, to fall in love, to start a relationship that will be really very involving in some cases and especially with Mars in Scorpio between September and October 2025. Before that, however, Jupiter in Gemini from January to May will ask you to make sacrifices, to reflect carefully on your romantic relationship and perhaps ask you to make an important choice, even to put an end to a love relationship that no longer makes you happy. Jupiter, in fact, in the twelfth house, brings to light what is not right in a love relationship and only if both people are very mature will it be possible to move on, overcome everything and prepare for a truly amazing second half of the year. Leaving your love partner before June means facing the summer with a huge chance of meeting another person who will fill your heart with joy. Fall in love, don't be afraid and if by chance you are among those who have been in love for a long time and are planning to make an important choice like getting married, then all this will be possible with Jupiter in Cancer. Having a child, a second child, moving into a new house, getting engaged, choosing a wedding date. Many events that concern love are in tune with the transit of Jupiter in Cancer, which, let's not forget, has been missing from this sign of the zodiac for about 12 years and this is why it is so important. Beware only of those months in which Saturn will be in quadrature from the zodiac sign Aries, that is, from June to September, because you may feel the weight of many responsibilities that could make you make the wrong choices. The advice of a person who loves you very much will be very useful during this period.

Job - career - money Cancer 2025: excellent time for work. Jupiter transiting behind you for the first 5 months of this year is obviously very useful for overcoming obstacles, facing challenges and even being helped and supported in some professional battles. In short, with this Jupiter, as far as work is concerned, you will have a parachute that will cushion your falls. Then comes the new transit, Jupiter in Cancer, and therefore in your sign of the zodiac after about 12 years. The turning point in your life, also supported by Saturn in Pisces which will make you very mature and has made you evolve over the last 2 years. Inside you, you will feel a very strong need to change something, to renew your professional life, to take another path, to leave your current workplace to go elsewhere, even to another city. Perhaps these decisions will be taken late, towards the end of the year, but they will be very clear in your mind and you will have to prepare yourself to put them into practice. If you accept to change what is no longer working well in your professional life, then you will certainly achieve important goals by the end of the year and in 2026 you will reap a lot. If you don't have a job, study a lot in the first 5 months of the year because Saturn asks for sacrifices and then send your CV, interview people and choose to change, to renew if you want to live in a better future. During this year, many of you will remove the chain from your feet, moving away from people who are not advantageous and who do not allow you to be what you would like to be. If you have a work project, you may even be helped by a friend, an influential person who will believe in your qualities and lay the foundations for you to achieve what you have in mind. The support of Jupiter is fundamental throughout the year and should be exploited. Very precise and fortunate financial investments need to be made.

Luck - fitness Cancer 2025: being strong physically but also mentally will be very important during this year if you plan to carry out a key project. Obviously, the most stressful period in which you could lose your bearings will be when Saturn passes through Aries, from June to September. It is better not to tire yourself out too much, not to work too hard, not to travel too much, not to make decisions that require a lot of reasoning because with your body and mind exhausted, you run the real risk of experiencing a crisis phase made up of big mistakes. All the other months, on the other hand, are particularly interesting for strengthening the immune system, doing sport, travelling, relaxing in various ways and regaining that concentration and balance between mind, body and spirit that will allow you to work on your ideas with greater determination. As we said before, Jupiter transiting in the twelfth house, therefore behind you from January to May, indicates help, support and if you are experiencing a psychophysical malaise, you will probably find the right cure, the right doctor on your way. The sky is not at all negative for you but it is clear that Saturn is not the only problem because the transits of Mars will also debilitate your body and mind, particularly between August and September and around Christmas time. Don't travel, either for work or personal reasons, when Saturn is in Aries because you could face a phase of enormous tiredness and even some accidents, fortunately in rare cases. With Jupiter in your sky from the first days of June, much of your energy will have to be spent on preparing the ground for events and projects to be carried out, so perhaps this summer you will have less fun but you will work harder to achieve your objectives, perhaps even by the end of the year. These months are ideal for starting a new hobby, which could help you to release the tension accumulated over the months.

And if you have ascendant in ...

Aries: with this astrological configuration, surely the best part of this year, the one that will bring satisfaction and results in business and economic but also sentimental, is the one that starts in January and ends in June. So many months to cultivate your dreams and make them come true.

Taurus: the professional sector is positive in the second half of the year while with Jupiter in Cancer from June 2025 your psychophysical condition will improve and feeling good about yourself and more optimistic, you will be able to reach further levels of awareness and other concrete results.

Gemini: renouncing sentimental life is not something you usually do because the current sky promises to be very fascinating to make seductive encounters, certainly full of magnetism and a very high erotic charge. Second part of the year to start again with new professional projects.

Cancer: this year's sky favors work but disadvantages the physical and mental condition especially in reference to the first part of the year while with Jupiter in Cancer from June, everything will be more rewarding. Do not give up because Saturn offers very useful energies even if it asks for many efforts.

Leo: a quite positive beginning of the year with many possibilities to reach the goals that you have set but with the arrival of Jupiter in Cancer, you will not be able to continue, you will not find the determination that will allow you to achieve great goals.

Virgo: a wonderful time to feel loved especially in relation to the second part of the year and then you will be able to work hard and despite some dissatisfaction and a great psychophysical fatigue, you will be able to get to the end of the year quite satisfied with the results achieved.

Libra: the sky is benevolent with all of you in the first part of the year when Jupiter will form a wonderful trigon with your zodiacal ascendant. New opportunities, clear recovery after a difficult time and a lot of love that can enter your life if you believe in it.

Scorpio: a year that should give you some satisfactions considering the transits of planet Jupiter but looking at the position of Saturn that for the whole year will be in Pisces, we can confirm that those few results that you will achieve will be amplified and will bring a lot of joy in your heart and mind.

Sagittarius: an absolutely good sky but only in part because when Jupiter will be in Cancer it will become less ambiguous since there will no longer be its opposition to the natal ascendant but that could lead to a drop in physical energies, to a general weakening not certainly benevolent for you.

Capricorn: some situation not very pleasant to deal with but in general here we are faced with a year not so complicated and indeed quite cheerful, lively, full of interesting encounters if we talk about love but only in its first part. If you are looking for a job, work hard in the first 5 months with Jupiter still transiting in Gemini.

Aquarius: nice moment in love and work but in reference to the first part of the year when Jupiter will form a splendid trigon with your zodiacal ascendant. A great rebirth, many opportunities to demonstrate your innate qualities and a great love coming up.

Pisces: this kind of astrological configuration confirms that this year will be rather unfavorable at the physical level because of Saturn transiting in Pisces and therefore in conjunction with your zodiacal ascendant. Probably you will be much quieter and you will love to be alone more often but Jupiter in Cancer will help you.

LEO

Love Leo 2025: with Mars in your sign of the zodiac from April 19 to June 17, 2025, you will experience a period of enormous expansion at the sentimental level because, among other things, you are also supported by Jupiter in Gemini until the first days of June 2025. It is very important to say that the transit of the planet of fortune takes place in your eleventh sector, which is the one connected with those loves that can arise from friendships that have been cultivated for a long time. Therefore, some of you may fall in love with a person you had at your side as a friend. Passion in the first few months of the year will be very high, very great, very powerful and will allow you to attract more than one person, but it is clear that you must direct your heart towards the right person who can be in tune with you. The first part of this new year is therefore beautiful, while with Jupiter, which will transit behind you after June, you will be able to strengthen the union of love even through some trials that you will overcome quite easily. In fact, Jupiter will be a very valid support for all of you. If you already have someone to love by your side, then you should know that your love life can be consolidated before June, strengthened, and probably many couples will make important decisions, such as going to live together or choosing a wedding date, but it is important to say that these decisions must then be put into practice, if possible, before the start of the summer, otherwise everything will become heavier, even if it is still feasible. It will be a year divided in half as far as feelings are concerned, but not at all negative because Saturn will not disturb you, while Uranus in quadrature could create some uncertainty and unpredictable events only in those couples who have not yet reached a good level of solidity. In these cases you will need to be very careful about thoughts of betrayal because you may not be so happy with the relationship you are in and will look for something else.

Job - career - money - Leo 2025: the first 5 months are excellent for moving forward in your work, for demonstrating your true value, for bringing out the qualities you possess because Jupiter still supports you so much and only the quadrature of Uranus could create some unexpected events, some disruption but the good news is that Uranus will also move into Gemini and therefore sudden but positive changes in work, even considerable and sudden gains but obviously for all those who have been able to sow in the past year and in the very first months of this 2025. Saturn is not very heavy either, in fact it should not create any particular problems and therefore the energies will be there and will allow you to put into play various projects that are important to you. Unfortunately, some of them will have to be put aside but other very interesting ideas will come to mind which you can put into practice immediately. Yes, because at the work level, you need to act in the first months of the year and not afterwards, because with the summer, Jupiter will be at your back, and while it is true that it should not create much discomfort, indeed it will be a support in difficult moments, it is also true that its positive influence will not be like that of the beginning of the year. The best period to work and to obtain advantages and progress is from January to May. If during the summer or the autumn and winter you suffer a phase of blockage in which you are unable to proceed, don't worry because Jupiter transiting in your twelfth sector will put you in the right place at the right time and you will be able to overcome every obstacle. Changes of job within the same office in which you work may be probable and perhaps unwanted, even unexpected, but don't worry because everything will return to your favour very soon. If you are looking for a new job, don't be satisfied with the city where you live but look further afield and you will find that you have many other opportunities which are really interesting.

Luck - fitness Leo 2025: Mars will be very good in spring and autumn because in these two periods it will transit in Leo, therefore in your sky, and then in Sagittarius. In these two phases of the year you will have a lot of energy, a lot of will power, a determination and a physical as well as mental strength that could allow you to reach unthinkable goals. Don't underestimate the summer, however, because the change of Jupiter from the sign of the zodiac Gemini to Cancer, therefore behind you, could create slight uncertainties, discomfort and a slight reduction in willpower and creativity, especially if you are an artist. Do not be pessimistic, however, but realise that this is a year of great opportunities, a year in which you can really do a lot, achieve a lot and feel particularly satisfied. If you love to travel, the first 5 months of the year can be used to go on long trips, not only for work but also for fun, and who knows, on some of these trips you may meet someone who will prove to be fundamental for your work project or who will become your partner in your love life. Less interesting are the trips that will be made after the summer. If you are going through a complicated phase in terms of physical as well as mental fitness, find the strength to cure yourself with Jupiter in Gemini but if you go beyond the month of June, know that Jupiter in Cancer will be a godsend because it will help you find the right cure, the right doctor, in short, you will often be in the right place at the right time. Jupiter, in fact, is almost never negative, even if at times it leads to exaggeration. As far as financial investments or legal cases are concerned, which you have been facing for some time, let's say that the year is very good for several months and you could find the right solution, have better luck, spend money on buying a house or on renovating the one you live in. The phase is in any case one of ascent despite a few climbs.

And if you have ascendant in ...

Aries: a year that is not easy for all of you unfortunately because the slow planets with their movements in the zodiacal circle will not favor your working and sentimental life. Fortunately, in the majority of cases, you will live a year that is simply very boring and with few opportunities for fun and socializing.

Taurus: excellent start to the year that seems to be a fruitful continuation of the one just ended, so the 2024 that should have brought improvements in business but also sentimental and if that has not happened then you have the first 5 months to try to achieve these goals and the following until the end of the year.

Gemini: certainly for you the first part of the year will be less boring and we can say that it will actually be enjoyable. This is because Jupiter in Gemini forms a conjunction with your Ascendant. Second part of the year in which you will finally begin to reap what you have sown in the previous months.

Cancer: definitely a rather favorable year to pursue commitments, collaborations, contracts, to start new professional paths, to find a satisfactory job, but you have to push on the accelerator especially in the second half of the year with Jupiter, Uranus and Saturn positive.

Leo: the quadrature of Uranus from the zodiac sign Taurus is absolutely very unpleasant to live and the risk is to make some mistakes, to get distracted, not to achieve the goals set but in the first part of the year the climate will improve and be particularly useful.

Virgo: a good time to pursue some personal or work projects that you started last year because even in the second part of this new year, Jupiter and Uranus are absolutely positive while Saturn opposite the Ascendant creates discomfort at the physical level, perhaps some discomfort that can be resolved.

Libra: an ambiguous year in which perhaps the first part will be better but which will not give you what you want for some very particular reason, perhaps because of some prospects that you had set for yourself but that unfortunately cannot be put into practice, realized. Do not lose heart but move forward.

Scorpio: a very bad sky thinking about the first 5 months with Uranus opposed to your zodiacal ascendant and that will make you fall into a bottomless ravine from which it will be difficult to rise. Be careful not to commit crimes, do not be superficial and get advice from someone if you are not sure of your actions.

Sagittarius: a complicated year in which thinking of reaching goals that you have set will be quite impossible. Saturn in quadrature is very heavy and you also have Jupiter in Gemini that opposing your ascendant will lower your physical strength and immune system. Do not neglect anything.

Capricorn: surely the best results will be achieved at the beginning of the year with a series of positive planets with your Ascendant but that must not be underestimated because the level of attention must be very high. Second part of the year less pleasant to live.

Aquarius: if you do not intend to carry out any work project at the beginning of the year then you risk making a big mistake because with Jupiter in Gemini you can really achieve a lot and therefore act instead of standing still. You need to calm down and be careful observers after June.

Pisces: very bad astrological configuration especially in reference to the first part of the year when Jupiter will be in quadrature with the zodiacal ascendant while Saturn will be a big stick in the mud that will not allow you to manage with serenity every sector of your life.

VIRGO

Love Virgo 2025: Uranus is in Taurus at the beginning of the year and still signals possible changes in the emotional sphere for all of you. Those couples who are still clinging to a certain emotional instability could, with Jupiter in Gemini and especially with Saturn in Pisces, collapse and decide to separate. Unfortunately, the real problem is that you may realise, even abruptly at times, that the person you have at your side is not ideal. Differences of opinion will come out suddenly and unexpectedly and you will not easily find a solution, perhaps deciding to end the relationship and remain alone rather than go on suffering. Realise that if your love story ends in this period, at the beginning of the new year, with Jupiter in Cancer from June and therefore forming a sextile with your birth Sun, you can return to smiling, perhaps meeting someone who will make you forget the past. Then it must also be said that if you are alone, you will have many more opportunities in the second half of the year, starting in the summer, so take care of your physical appearance, go to the gym and eat well in order to become more attractive and more beautiful in the eyes of others. If you are alone at the beginning of the year, it is very likely that you will arrive at the end of the year no longer alone but in the company of a person who will make your heart beat faster, perhaps not very cheerful and sociable but concrete, analytical, solid, with whom you can build a truly lasting love. Furthermore, it must be said that Saturn will not be in Pisces in June, July and August, but in Aries, so you will feel much less the strain of a love relationship and will instead enjoy a greater sense of freedom that will allow you to open your heart even wider. The end of the year will be quite complicated only because there will be a return of Saturn in Pisces and those who have not been able to find a solution to a love crisis will perhaps have to separate.

Job - career - money Virgo 2025: even the professional life will live, during this year, two phases, one less interesting, less profitable, the other instead much more beneficial. All those projects, in fact, which did not take off at the beginning of the year or in spring, inexplicably will take off during the summer or autumn, obviously if you don't stop, if you don't abandon the idea of going ahead with everything because we must say that the heaviness of Saturn's opposition from Pisces will still be very much felt. This year, Saturn will leave Pisces in the summer, but then in September it will return to this sign of the zodiac, and if what you have built up at work is not solid, then you will be forced to change direction. Between January and May, however, Jupiter is still in Gemini and therefore in transit in your tenth sector of the zodiac, the sector linked to your social and professional life, as well as to your mother. Perhaps a woman in your family, your own mother, will have unexpected success or you yourself will take on important tasks which, in the second half of the year, will allow you to achieve considerable satisfaction at an economic level. A fundamental project could start after June with Jupiter in the eleventh sector and thanks to a meeting with an influential person who will understand your qualities and decide to support you. Don't waste this year, even if the physical and mental fatigue will be very noticeable and at times you will feel depressed, disappointed, very pessimistic and you will shut yourself away, talking very little. If you are looking for a new professional job, remember that the first few months are very important for studying, preparing yourself and improving your skills, but you must not wait around, you must send out your CV, go on interviews and the phone will ring several times during the summer. Remember that you are very concrete people and that Uranus will support you in some job changes that may come unexpectedly.

Luck - fitness Virgo 2025: on a physical level unfortunately we must say that the year will be quite heavy. This is because Saturn will always be in the zodiacal sign Pisces and therefore in opposition but what is worrying is that it will pass into Aries between June and August and then return to Pisces. So you won't have much time to recover your energy and when you feel better, the planet of time and sacrifices will ask a lot of you again. A year of sacrifices, of commitments that must be kept, a year in which you will have to take on a lot of responsibility and try to mature. Obviously, in this existential journey you will be supported by Uranus and Jupiter in the second half of the year, so you should not always be pessimistic but look at the glass as half full and not half empty. The most complicated period for your physical form, for distractions, for a more accentuated sense of guilt, is the one that sees Mars in Sagittarius from 5 November until 15 December 2025 and in the meantime Saturn will again be in opposition. Do not exaggerate with food, with vices such as smoking or alcohol, do not underestimate a psychophysical discomfort and in this way you will overcome the period quite easily. Little fun is expected during many months of the year but the foundations you are laying are for a more solid future and Jupiter will help you in this direction with its transit in both Gemini and Cancer. If you intend to travel, whether for business or private reasons, from June to September you will be able to do so carefree and with much less fatigue. Know how to live your life with tranquillity, even if some Uranus disruption could bring it, and know how to have people at your side who will be able to help you in moments of great tiredness, low energy, a sharp drop in creativity or depression and melancholy. At the end of the year, you will realise that you have fought a lot but have also achieved a lot, without substantial help from destiny.

And if you have ascendant in ...

Aries: if you will know how to wait and not make too many mistakes during the second half of the year, then you will be able to live serenely, exactly after the month of June, certainly less excellent, pleasant, scarce of progress and of notable satisfactions also in the field of love, with passionate encounters.

Taurus: you must push on the accelerator in the second part of this year with the double support of Jupiter and Saturn but also with that of Uranus. Positive agreements, profitable collaborations that can bring not only increased prestige but also a lot of money and appreciation from some important people.

Gemini: that Jupiter that touches your Ascendant in the first part of this year 2025 indicates that you will be able to recover after an absolutely exhausting and particularly complicated period that may have already begun in the past year. Now it's a matter of recovering energy and looking to your future with great determination.

Cancer: a good year, especially if we look at the months after June in which you will be supported by Jupiter, Saturn and Uranus, thus succeeding in realizing many of your work projects, or even just one, but important for progress. Even in love you can expect interesting opportunities, breathtaking encounters.

Leo: you will have to take advantage of the transit of Jupiter in Gemini that unfortunately occurs only in the first 5 months and so you will be able to solve several problems started in the past year. Do not underestimate money, do not underestimate expenses and do not ask too much from those who are at your side in life.

Virgo: second part of the year in which to take advantage of many opportunities that will surely come if your mind is predisposed to receive new things, new opportunities. Obviously with the transit of Jupiter in Cancer you will be lucky and daily life will flow easily and you will feel more serene.

Libra: excellent moment in reference to the first part of the year in which Jupiter is in Gemini and therefore in trigon with your zodiacal ascendant, will allow you to be reborn, to be more fortunate, to recover physical energy and creativity after years rather disappointing in the past.

Scorpio: at the beginning of this year you will certainly be burdened by various problems that may affect various areas of your life and not only your work and love life. You must proceed with extreme tranquility and do not underestimate the work but also some personal, family and emotional situations.

Sagittarius: little fun during a year that won't be absolutely simple because of Jupiter that until June will unfortunately oppose your zodiacal ascendant creating fatigue and also illusions, chimeras in your head that would be much better to leave out in order not to find yourself in harmful situations.

Capricorn: trusting this Jupiter but also Saturn in Aries for a few months of the year is definitely not right and good because these planets will not bring interesting opportunities to progress in your life, to achieve successes and goals for which you have worked so hard since last year.

Aquarius: the year is ambiguous because Jupiter moves but Uranus remains in Taurus and Saturn in Pisces. You need to be very careful with your spending in the months of the year after June and then you will possibly be able to invest money in some projects that Jupiter in Cancer can bring into your life. Desire to change something.

Pisces: it's not an easy year, especially before the month of June when, due to the quadrature of Jupiter to your ascendant and at the same time the transit of Saturn always on your zodiacal ascendant, you will be very tired, depressed, fatigued and in this state of weakness you risk making mistakes.

LIBRA

Love Libra 2025: Saturn will be in Aries during the summer months and exactly in June, July and August. This means that the summer period for love life will not be easy at all. With the influence of this Saturn, many couples could break up during this tiring and stressful period. Obviously, it is necessary to differentiate between those couples who have been in crisis for a long time and those who are serene but could still experience a moment of difficulty. Remember that Jupiter is in Gemini until the first days of June and this facilitates love life with a truly wonderful springtime for everyone and in which relationships can be strengthened and consolidated. In some cases, the decision will even be made to take an important step, such as moving in with someone, getting officially engaged, even getting married or choosing a wedding date. But the other bad news is that Jupiter will also form a bad astrological aspect and exactly from June, when unfortunately it will enter Cancer, forming a quadrature with your sign of the zodiac. It will be very complicated to understand what to do in those situations that are in the balance and the summer could be very complicated with the transit in opposition of Saturn. If you are lonely hearts, then winter and spring are the best times to meet someone, to fall in love, to try to achieve the happiness that you are lacking, but the rest of the year will not be easy and you will have to navigate through various difficulties in love. A love that is born in the summer will be destined to disappear soon or to have various problems while if the love is born by June, with the support of Jupiter in Gemini, then the second half of the year will still be difficult but you should overcome the problems without arriving at a separation or divorce in some cases. Don't take trips during the summer with your loved one as they may not be so useful and could worsen the climate within the relationship.

Job - career - money Libra 2025: Jupiter is absolutely excellent for work, to pursue new or old projects, to consolidate those started in the past year, perhaps towards its end and thus look to a horizon that promises a good harvest. You need to hurry, however, because its new transit, starting in June, will be rather deleterious for all of you because it will form a quadrature with your natal Sun and therefore create obstacles but above all the illusion of being able to reach new goals. When Jupiter is in trigon, it leads to a phase of expansion in the social, professional and economic sectors, but when it forms a quadrature or an opposition, then everything becomes less interesting and you may face some bitter disappointments and illusions. So, while the first 5 months will be months in which to sow and reap, the following months will be full of small and big difficulties that should not be underestimated but carefully evaluated in order to find the right solution. This is an excellent time for work at the beginning of the year for young people who may be looking for their first professional job. You need to act quickly, be ready, don't waste time and energy, and if an opportunity does come along, you need to take it quickly because the second half of the year will be much less advantageous, indeed it will be really dry of opportunities, and not only for young people. The influence of Uranus in Taurus will not be very evident but when the planet will be in Gemini and exactly from July 8, 2025 to November 8, 2025, sudden but favourable events could arrive, so decide quickly. It will be easy to delude yourself, however, and therefore the secret to success during this year, especially in the professional sector, will be to know how to be satisfied and not to take flights of fancy. When you are very confused and do not know what to do, you will have to ask for advice from someone who can support you and help you in the right way.

Luck - fitness Libra 2025: a fairly balanced year as far as luck is concerned, i.e. those events that come unexpectedly from fate without you doing much to attract them. Certainly these events will happen between January and May but you should not exclude the second half of the year either, especially when Uranus is in Gemini, precisely from 8 July 2025 to 8 November 2025. In this period, unpredictable but probably fortunate events may arrive and make you particularly happy. As far as fitness is concerned, we should look at the transits of Mars but Saturn is still the most important planet to observe and for some months of the year it will be opposite, from June to August. These summer months are very complicated for your physical fitness but also for your mental fitness and you will feel very drained energetically, unable to fight tenaciously against the various problems that will present themselves before your eyes. Try to consolidate all the sectors and all the goals in the first 5 months, so that you arrive in the summer and autumn period with less stress and the possibility of starting a slow recovery. The balance between mind, body and spirit will be particularly difficult to rediscover and if you cannot do this on your own, get help from someone more experienced. Fruitful journeys will be made from January to May, but less so later. The danger is that you will work too much this year, especially in the second half of the year, and not be able to find the time to have fun, to rest, to exploit your creativity in a hobby that you may have had for some years. Jupiter in Cancer tends to increase your body weight, leading you to exaggerate not only your diet but also your vices. Vices such as alcohol and smoking are absolutely deleterious at this time of year, so a great challenge for all of you would be to fight against these vices and defeat them for good. It will not be easy.

And if you have ascendant in ...

Aries: this will certainly not be a very lucky year in its second half, but what good things can come will be due to your sacrifices, your commitment and perhaps the help and support of a person who loves you so much. You have to know how to be content after June with some satisfaction that will come.

Taurus: a difficult time for the first part of the year with Jupiter in Gemini that could make you spend a lot of money to fix some health problems, but if we look at the first part of the year, life will smile and you will be able to reach unthinkable goals.

Gemini: a good year as far as work is concerned but not immediately because you have to wait for Jupiter's transit in Cancer that will give you a better physical and mental strength but we must say that Saturn in Pisces will make you much more silent and lonely, even rather unfriendly and not very mature.

Cancer: it is not useful to criticize everyone when things go wrong, but you have to look inside yourself, but fortunately, after June 2025, Jupiter promises to bring you so many satisfactions that you will not have time to look inside yourself and understand what to improve about your character.

Leo: an astrological configuration that confirms a year that is not exciting and in which few things, few events will happen, but only in the second half. Do not underestimate your work but also your sentimental life that should not cause too many worries if your love relationship is not the result of a past crisis.

Virgo: an absolutely positive year especially if you decide to work hard from June until the end of the year. Basically these months are a new beginning that will help you to achieve what you set in your mind a few years ago.

Libra: this does not seem to be a bad year but not very good either. We are facing an anonymous year in its second part in which no exceptional situations, tremendously pleasant or unpleasant events should happen but in which you will be able to move forward with serenity, walking along paths already established by you.

Scorpio: difficult the first part of this year with Jupiter and Uranus forming almost both bad aspects with your zodiacal ascendant. Perhaps you will feel too tired, stressed, particularly exhausted in some moments of your life and not in tune with the world around you but soon you will feel much better.

Sagittarius: absolutely anonymous moment for you in which surely the second half of the year will bring less complications both in the work and in the sentimental field. It will not be easy to manage your love life and professional and will not be easy to be confident in the future but somehow you must not give up.

Capricorn: a very good time not to live together, not to marry, not to consolidate a love relationship or not to realize a work project to which you have been working for many months, maybe starting from last year. Now everything is not easily feasible and you have to work very hard not to arrive at the expected goal.

Aquarius: a first part of the year certainly better thanks to the support of Jupiter transiting in Gemini but do not underestimate that Saturn in Pisces could lead many of you to spend too much, when it is not necessary to waste money. If you are hesitant in the workplace, you are making a serious mistake.

Pisces: it is not easy to face the demons of the past that could resurface with Jupiter in quadrature to the ascendant sign and with Saturn in conjunction to your zodiac sign ascendant always. You have to be very strong and ask for help, support if you are not able to go it alone.

SCORPIO

Love Scorpio 2025: supported by Saturn in Pisces you start with a year in which you will most likely be able to consolidate the love relationship you are experiencing, you will be able to strengthen everything you are doing in love. Any sentimental project, such as having a child, buying a house to live in, getting engaged, or getting married, will be supported by an important transit of Saturn for many months of the year, but we are convinced that most decisions will be taken in the second half of 2025 when Jupiter will be solidly in your sign of the zodiac, allied with Cancer. Its transit in the ninth sector of the zodiac could indicate the arrival of a love affair with a very intelligent, spiritually active person or one who comes from a city or even a distant country. In short, a love that could change the lives of lonely hearts considerably, while those who are already romantically involved will be able to strengthen their union and mature by taking on more responsibilities. The best periods for lonely hearts to meet someone are those in which Mars will be efficient, that is in Virgo from June 18 to August 6, 2025 and in Scorpio from September 23 to November 4, 2025 but also in Capricorn from December 16 to the end of the year. The period after June will be very important for those couples who wish to have a child or make other projects in the sentimental sector with their partner, husband, wife, boyfriend, girlfriend. On the other hand, for singles, these are months in which your charm will be excellent and attracting a person will not be an impossible task; on the contrary, we foresee many friendships and with some of them truly passionate love affairs could be born, full of that eroticism and seductive, magnetic power that makes you unique. No one will be able to resist your charm but don't look elsewhere if you are already involved with someone.

Job - career - money Scorpio 2025: work certainly becomes quite complicated to manage but not because you will find obstacles but because you will probably have many projects to work on and you will decide to work a lot. Fortunately, with the support of Saturn for many months and also Jupiter in Cancer from June 2025, you will easily manage to reach remarkable levels of satisfaction. If you don't yet have a good job or even if you don't have a job, don't be pessimistic but study, go on interviews, send your CV because the summer could bring that news, that phone call that you have been waiting for since the beginning of the year, perhaps since last year. Optimism at a professional level will certainly be a winning weapon for all of you, so cultivate confidence and you will see that the planets will support you in your projects. The most complicated months for bringing home successes, also at an economic level, are the first 5 of this new year, but all the hard work, all the climbs that you will make, will be transformed into successes in the second half and precisely from June, with the entry of Jupiter in Cancer, therefore in trignon with your birth Sun. Only one thing needs to be said, and that is the influence of Uranus, which for several months will still be in Taurus, and therefore in opposition. For many of you, the changes that arrive will not be accepted well, or they will arrive so suddenly that you won't be able to understand them properly and make the right choices. When Uranus gets in the way, unfortunately it behaves in a stormy manner and you will have to follow the wave of these times, of its times, without worrying too much, however, because the sky will be absolutely very interesting later on and if you have known how to take risks, the benefits will be considerable by the end of the year. Economically, no great gains are expected, on the contrary, perhaps a lot of expenses, financial investments to support some projects. One of these projects could be the purchase or fitting out of a house.

Luck - fitness Scorpio 2025: talking about luck in your regard for this year is right and good. In fact, you know how to attract, even if it often happens to you without really knowing how, lucky, unpredictable but advantageous events. Certainly the second half of this year will be much more demanding but full of satisfaction, and even physically you will not be in serious difficulty, but your energy will be sufficient to deal with any problem, any battle, any obstacle. Saturn is a valuable ally, as is Jupiter, because from the zodiacal sign of Pisces, but not in every month, he will be able to give you the super energy you need to mature, evolve and at the same time be what you want. On an energetic and physical level, this year is really very good and does not foresee any difficulties that are so important that they put a spoke in your wheel in a definitive way. Even from June, with Jupiter in trigon from the zodiac sign Cancer, you will be more lively, more sociable, more cheerful and also mentally stronger, managing to achieve much more. For some of you, the year will already bring an excellent harvest by the end of it, while for others, it will be a matter of sowing a lot in order to harvest in the first part of the following year. Travel will be incredibly positive, especially in the second half of the year. You may meet various people who will be able to give you important support for the realisation of a work or family or personal project, in short, perhaps a love project. The heavens are with you, but be sure to thank the universe for everything it sends you. You just need to be careful with Uranus, which will still be in opposition for many months and could make you distracted, the victim of small incidents. If you are facing a legal case, expect good news after June and possibly also the resolution of other bureaucratic situations, including family ones. A positive year, therefore, in which you will be reborn.

And if you have ascendant in ...

Aries: a good year in which to really reap a lot after sowing during last year. Do not give up and in the first 5 months continue to work hard to achieve further satisfaction. With Jupiter in Gemini, even physically you will be very good and it would be useful to start a new hobby.

Taurus: an excellent period to strengthen the body and to reach good levels of awareness is that which concerns the last 7 months of the year with Jupiter in Cancer you will be able to reap what you have sown in the past months. Good time for love with opportunities to meet your soul mate.

Gemini: great year, especially in reference to its first part with Jupiter transiting your zodiacal ascendant but also passing in a good position with the natal Sun. Be careful, however, to assume your responsibilities and to mature in love without neglecting the needs of the person you love.

Cancer: after the first 5 months of the year, you will be able to obtain good results in the work environment thanks to the conjunction of Jupiter but also to the transit of Saturn from the zodiac sign Pisces which is also favorable for your Ascendant. Great opportunities to consolidate all that you will achieve but the road will be very hard.

Leo: this zodiacal ascendant limits a little the potential of a year that could be fabulous for you. Pay attention to your physical form, do not exaggerate with too much fatiguing and dangerous sports and do not underestimate eventual illnesses. Stay away from bad nutrition and vices such as smoking and alcohol.

Virgo: an excellent year if we consider its second part but first you must be careful. If you want to get good results in every area of your life and especially in work and love, then commit yourself between the months of June and December 2025 with Jupiter in sextile to your zodiacal ascendant.

Libra: excellent moment for what concerns work with a daily life that flows in a serene way but the greatest satisfactions will come in the first part of the year with Jupiter in Gemini that will be positive for your zodiacal ascendant. Great opportunities coming before the month of June.

Scorpio: physically you must be very careful, especially in the first 5 months of the year because of Jupiter in the zodiac sign Gemini and it would be good not to neglect any physical discomfort. The second half of this year will still be unprofitable in almost all areas of your life.

Sagittarius: trying to achieve goals and objectives will not be easy in this period because of Jupiter in opposition from Gemini and then opposed to your zodiacal ascendant, creating the conditions for not feeling so good physically. Don't give up on love but know how to be content with what comes.

Capricorn: with Jupiter and Saturn quite favorable for some months it's about reaching very interesting goals and feel really satisfied. In every sector of your life there will be joy, pleasant events but the first part of the year will be more beautiful with Jupiter in Gemini while later its transit in Cancer will be less profitable and will create illusions.

Aquarius: difficult the second half of the year, rather tiring both physically and work and in some cases even sentimental because of Jupiter in Cancer but the sky is excellent before the month of June with Jupiter in Gemini. This will be a period of rebirth and consolidation for all of you for sure.

Pisces: the first 5 months will be very bad because Jupiter will be in Gemini and beware of Saturn that asks you to be very responsible, particularly strict with yourself as well as with the situations you will experience. With Jupiter in Cancer, it is necessary to evaluate favorable changes that can affect love and work and that will be born within you.

SAGITTARIUS

Love Sagittarius 2025: the year is complicated indeed. Unfortunately, also the sentimental sector will be tormented by the transit of Jupiter in Gemini, until the first days of June, fortunately, but we must not forget Saturn still in quadrature from the zodiacal sign Pisces and Uranus that for some months of the year will be in Gemini, therefore opposite. We can bet that many people will unfortunately be forced to end their love story because there will be too many quarrels and misunderstandings, and if the love story was already in the balance in recent years, or at least last year with Jupiter still in Gemini, then the only possible solution will be separation, the definitive break-up of the relationship. We must put our hands on our consciences and hearts and come to understand the mistakes of both, not only those of the partner but also the personal ones, because when a love relationship ends, the fault is often not only on one side. This is definitely a year of suffering for many couples, but especially for those who are tired and come from a very complicated past. Only those people who have been in love for a long time and have managed to overcome many difficulties, thanks also to a very strong maturity, will not take the decision to separate. As for those who are lonely and wish to find a soul mate, it is better to leave it alone, even if we must say that some moments of the year will be full of great passion, such as those with Mars in Leo from April 19 to June 17, 2025 and in Sagittarius from November 5 to December 15, 2025. The possibility of meeting people, of enjoying erotic adventures, will be very high in these two periods and the same periods will be useful for those who are already in a couple to find a momentary solution, perhaps relying on libido, physical power and physical attraction, which can therefore dampen the serious difficulties that will be experienced for several months of the year.

Job - career - money Sagittarius 2025: if you have a job, even if it doesn't satisfy you, don't leave it but continue along a path that may be monotonous and unsatisfying but which nonetheless helps you bring home the bacon. Abandoning a job with the hope of setting out on new paths will be a great risk, but a risk that is unlikely to be profitable, and this is because Jupiter is in opposition until the first days of June and then Saturn will be in quadrature for many months of the year, being in Pisces, not to mention Uranus which will transit, fortunately for a few months, in Gemini. Being content should be the watchword in this period and not exaggerate. If you are looking for a job, perhaps after the summer some favourable opportunities could arrive with the new transit of Jupiter in Cancer but do not hope to find a job so rewarding. Some people will even encounter a few traps, deceptions, in short, they will meet someone on their way who can create illusions but which may turn out to be simple disappointments. Do not underestimate the people who stand in your way and be wary of those who offer you, for example, to invest money in something particularly advantageous. You should trust only a few people and those who want what is best for you. The first part of the year is very difficult as the influences of Jupiter from the sign of the zodiac Gemini, together with those of Saturn in Pisces, could lead to a dismissal or a change of job within the same company where you work, but a change which is not profitable for you but absolutely disadvantageous. Finally, don't buy a house or do any renovation work because you could encounter too many obstacles and lose a lot of money; in other words, make the wrong financial investments with disastrous consequences for the near future. On the other hand, since the second part of 2025 will be less burdensome and certainly more advantageous, you must be ready.

Luck - fitness Sagittarius 2025: this year you certainly cannot hope for luck in the sense of support coming from destiny, as unexpected and advantageous events coming from the universe. The law of attraction, if it works for you this year, will unfortunately work in reverse, attracting to you obstacles, difficulties, many trials, various annoyances and not only at work, economically and in love but also physically. Saturn in Pisces and opposing Jupiter tend in fact to weigh down your body and mind, making you very, very tired, even overly optimistic or, on the contrary, overly pessimistic. It's difficult to find a good balance between mind, body and spirit, it's really very complicated to find serenity, tranquillity and inner peace but the good news is that Saturn will not always be in quadrature and Jupiter will pass into Cancer from June. Your resistance to the adversities of life will gradually diminish and you will be able to breathe and smile again. Beware of the first part of the year as far as physical fitness is concerned, watch your weight, stay away from any vices, such as alcohol and smoking, which could create really big problems or make your existing ones much worse. Lots of tiredness with Mars in Virgo from June 18 until August 6, 2025, the very period in which Jupiter transits in Cancer. This means that you may be too exhausted to enjoy some changes, perhaps small, that the planet of fortune will bring into your life. As far as travel is concerned, don't neglect the important ones and don't put them off if they are absolutely necessary for various reasons, but this doesn't seem to be a year to have a lot of fun, to put all the problems aside and think about having fun. Regaining the right concentration will in fact be fundamental at the beginning of the summer if you want to recover and leave behind you a very tiring first part of the year, which for some is even too tiring.

And if you have ascendant in ...

Aries: a good period to continue to harvest if you have been able to sow well in the past year while Jupiter was in sextile to your natal Sun but the wonders end and here is that the new transit of the planet of fortune from June in Cancer, will bring a few more opportunities in every sector of your life.

Taurus: various positive opportunities in the work but also in the sentimental field may occur from June until the end of the year and then get busy and act to take advantage of the positive. Obviously Saturn in Pisces asks you to know how to take responsibility, even a lot.

Gemini: good moment in love if we evaluate the first part of the year and excellent work opportunities but be careful with Saturn in quadrature to your solar sign and ascendant that lowers your immune system, makes you not very happy and melancholic. You must try to always smile at life.

Cancer: if you want to achieve some success, realize something pleasant, wait for the entrance of Jupiter in your sky and work hard in the second half of the year, taking advantage of the gifts of Saturn in Pisces to achieve goals that will last over time. A mature, responsible and not very superficial love is coming.

Leo: your professional life seems to be in the balance after June with Jupiter in Cancer and also physically you will not be in good shape but it is important to say that the previous transit of Jupiter in Gemini will improve your life in every sector, strengthening the mood and optimism useful to move forward.

Virgo: Saturn opposed to the zodiacal ascendant but also in quadrature to the solar sign is not a good thing. Difficulties, many obstacles to overcome, many opportunities to give up instead of moving forward, a lot of fatigue and the risk of entering into a host of melancholy and depression from which it will be difficult to get out.

Libra: it's easy to face the first part of the year when you are probably thinking about some changes to be implemented that come easily. Everything will change in the second part of the year with a quadrature of Jupiter to your zodiacal ascendant and the smile will be missing more spessp on your lips.

Scorpio: rather complicated moment and it could not be otherwise with Jupiter still in Gemini creating moments of illusion, disappointment, daydreams that can not be useful to progress. Fortunately, the seriousness with which you face the difficulties will be the winning weapon.

Sagittarius: a first part of the year decidedly anonymous, without particular events and in which perhaps only in some cases you will experience the risk of losing your job or a lot of money. Do not underestimate your professional life then and know. The second part of the year will be instead much better and full of pleasant events.

Capricorn: a really positive moment arrives with the first part of this year 2025 because the ascendant is supported by Jupiter while after the month of June you will live every day without particular events but after having reached various goals and satisfactions that will allow you to go on quietly and serenely.

Aquarius: do not underestimate the months from January to May that could be quite fruitful both in love and work and talking about money, with Saturn in the second house for the whole year be careful with financial investments and unnecessary expenses, superfluous. After May you recover your physical strength and achieve great success.

Pisces: a year characterized by the heaviness of Saturn on your ascendant that wants to teach you a lesson, make you learn something that will not be easy to understand. Often physically tired and perhaps with a few more aches and pains due to age no longer very young. Do not fall into the tunnel of depression but smile at life.

CAPRICORN

Love Capricorn 2025: this is not a good year to strengthen your sentimental union but above all, if you are lonely hearts, to meet a person who can open your heart. Obviously there will be opportunities but thinking of finding a soul mate will be really complicated considering not only the transit of Jupiter which enters Cancer from June 2025 but also that of Saturn which for the various summer months will unfortunately be in Aries. Opposition and quadrature will not do much good to all of you, even to those who are in a couple because a crisis could become more acute and if by chance the crisis does not exist, it could arise. You need to be cautious in love relationships, not exasperating tempers and not demanding too much, because with Jupiter in Cancer, unfortunately, your tendency will be to ask for what cannot be given, to demand things that at this moment in time will not be easy to obtain. It will certainly be a difficult year in love, but Jupiter in Gemini for the first 5 months is not bad and will help to ease the mood. Only the second half of the year will be very complicated and that Saturn will ask a lot of you, perhaps too much responsibility, which you will have to accept, otherwise, if you handle emotional problems with little maturity and a lot of superficiality, you will not reach the end of the year and you will obviously be forced to make a decision. It must be said that it is very probable that all those couples who have been in crisis for several months and who cannot find a solution to their misunderstandings, will be forced to take the decision to separate, to end their love story. New encounters for singles could occur in spring but, as we said before, we should not hope for a great love. These stars describe a year in which being alone is perhaps the best thing to do, to understand what you want. Theoretically, you can bring out positive things from loneliness and when the sky improves, you will be ready to meet someone new and fall in love.

Job - career - money Capricorn 2025: this year is also complicated for your professional life because with Jupiter in Cancer from June and with Saturn in quadrature during the summer period, it will be a real challenge to achieve the goals you have set for yourself. The advice of the planets and astrology in general, when transits are not easy, is to stay put and wait, above all by not making changes in your working life, important, substantial changes, giving up the desire to change direction, to do something new. Unfortunately, you will see many problems ahead of you that could also concern the economic sector, for example wrong investments, the purchase of instruments for work that are not adequate or that do not allow you to earn what you thought you would, but also difficulties in paying some sums of money, perhaps some accumulated debts. Fortunately, this sky will only be so complicated from the month of June and above all with Saturn in Aries, between June and August, while from January to May you will be able to do something interesting and achieve small goals that you may have built up during the past year. It must be said that Jupiter in opposition will unfortunately lead to some illusions and disappointments because you will be tempted to overdo it, to exaggerate in some situations. You will have ideas that are too big for you, utopian ideas that you will have to put into practice throughout most of the year. Don't start new professional collaborations, don't put your trust in people you don't know very well, but rather go it alone and get advice only from those few people you do know. Unfortunately, in the second half of the year, it is likely that some partnerships and companies will have to change their structure, perhaps even end. You will come out of this very difficult year, both professionally and economically, much stronger than before and with a lot more experience and wisdom, even if you are really exhausted and lacking in energy.

Luck - fitness Capricorn 2025: you are certainly among the less fortunate signs of the zodiac in this new year because of various transits which are not pleasant. Only Uranus will be positive in the zodiac sign Taurus, but it too will transit in Gemini for a few months. Opposite Jupiter, from June, describes a probable period of exaggeration which will affect not only the sentimental or work sector, but also the family and even the physical form, which will experience some difficult moments. Don't underestimate any discomfort you may be experiencing, don't underestimate psychological discomfort and don't underestimate an energy shortage that could create serious complications in your life. Take care of your diet, especially if you are overweight, and completely eliminate the use of alcohol or smoking, because even if you don't increase the amount of these vices, they could increase physical discomfort. The sky is not very favourable for travelling and if you think you will have a good time in the summer, unplugging and relaxing, you are wrong because with Saturn in Aries it will be almost impossible. The astrological sky will not be with you for many months, but in particular the summer period will be really debilitating, stressful and not a few times you will risk getting too worked up, even for trivial reasons. You must be very careful with the period with Mars in Libra from August 7 to September 22, 2025 because Saturn will be opposite the red planet in this period, bringing a very big fight with someone or a not indifferent psychophysical stress. Mind, body and spirit will not easily find the right balance and you will not be able to express your potential, your creativity. You are very tenacious people and no one can bring you down, not even during such a complicated period, so we are convinced that after this storm you will return stronger than before and well prepared to begin new, more positive paths.

And if you have ascendant in ...

Aries: excellent first part of the year thanks to an excellent Jupiter that supports your zodiacal ascendant but also to Saturn that supports your natal Sun. Periods of good harvest in every sector of your life and not only in the professional sector, even if here you probably reach many more successes and satisfactions.

Taurus: wonderful year that seems to be the continuation of the old year 2024 in which you have sown and have also been able to reap many satisfactions. During this year if you have not given space to love then you will find the right opportunities to meet someone to love, otherwise even better and more successes.

Gemini: super moment if we talk about the first part of the month with Jupiter in Gemini and then in conjunction with your natal Sun. Physically, after such an exciting beginning of the year, you will be able to recover and feel really in good shape but watch out for Saturn who wants to impose his law and teach you something.

Cancer: excellent time to reach further goals after having lived a rather amazing year 2024. Now you can strengthen all that you have achieved, you can consolidate a love affair and make it official or choose to go to live together or even get married. Work is excellent.

Leo: not so positive the second half of the year because of Jupiter behind you but this only means that you will have to be very careful about your psychophysical condition without exaggerating with food and possible vices for example. Everything is better in the first part of the year with Jupiter in Gemini.

Virgo: certainly between January and May you will be able to achieve few successes and reach positive goals in the work field and that Saturn in opposition is really very annoying and does not leave you alone asking you to become more and more responsible and take on more commitments. Some of you may not be able to resist the stress.

Libra: a good time as far as your private life is concerned if we refer to the first part of the year but with Jupiter in Gemini it will be the professional sector that will be most benefited. In fact, enjoy the person at your side without stressing much at work because few opportunities will come from the month of June.

Scorpio: definitely a productive year but in which there will be many difficulties in every sector of your life. Difficulties that will be mostly in the family, personal and sentimental spheres and that fortunately should not touch the working sphere where rather gratifying steps forward are expected.

Sagittarius: certainly the second part of the year will be more pleasant because having Jupiter in opposition to the Ascendant indicates disappointing moments, illusions, even physical discomfort as a result of poor nutrition and this between January and May. If you can strengthen your physical and mental in the first part of the year, then do it.

Capricorn: excellent 5 months in reference to the first part of the year 2025 while afterwards you will not be so serene and happy, indeed you will meet a discontent rather detrimental to your psychological state. Do not refuse the help of someone who can come to your aid, especially in the most complicated moments of your life, which will probably occur in the second half of this year that requires sacrifices, much commitment and assumption of responsibility, but that will give you a lot.

Aquarius: a good period in relation to the first part of the year with Jupiter in trigon with the zodiacal ascendant but also the following months you will be quite satisfied with the results you achieve. Love is not easy to live but even in this area you will have your opportunities if you create them before others.

Pisces: the heaviness of Saturn is felt not only in relation to the physical but also in the assumption of great responsibilities that should not be refused. Surely you will be able to achieve some important goals in the second half of the year and with Jupiter in Cancer everything will become less complicated.

AQUARIUS

Love Aquarius 2025: you absolutely must take advantage of the first part of the year if you want to achieve a remarkable level of satisfaction in love. Lonely hearts must act from January to May because with the transit of Jupiter in Gemini it is very easy to make really exciting encounters. Certainly, to experience a great physical attraction, Jupiter's transits are not enough, but those of Mars must be taken into account. A good period, even if it concerns the second part of the year, will be the one with Mars in Libra from 7th August to 22nd September 2025. Basically, you could meet someone by May, make a new friendship but only have the courage to come forward, to dare, in the second half of the year and exactly in the summer, precisely with this wonderful transit of Mars in trigon with your natal Sun which will give you greater power of attraction and seduction. Usually for you the summer is not a good period because there are some fast planets that transit in Leo or Virgo, but this summer 2025 is different and will be absolutely to live for sentimental reasons. If your intention, you who are still alone, is to enjoy superficial relationships, based only on sex, then here are the opportunities that will arrive without problems. On the other hand, for people who are already in love with someone, there is no doubt that the first five months will be very useful for strengthening the love relationship and even making interesting plans together. If, however, you intend to get married, have a child, fix up the house or move in together, try to do everything before the end of May. The relationship will become much more mature with Saturn in Aries between June and August, even if it will lose that sense of lightness that Jupiter in Gemini created. In short, many couples will be able to mature, see their relationship evolve and achieve concreteness in everything they decide together. Expenses for buying a house can be very high.

Job - career - money Aquarius 2025: in the professional sector, the year promises to bring something very interesting, both for those who are looking for their first job and for those who want to change direction or consolidate what they have achieved. For example, that Jupiter in Gemini between January and May and that Saturn still in Pisces until the beginning of the summer, will probably allow you to take advantage of great opportunities and to earn a lot of money. In fact, Jupiter brings opportunities to be seized, while Saturn, which passes through your second zodiacal sector, allows you to put more money in your pockets. Money outgoings will also be considerable because you will have to, in some cases, invest before you earn. Don't stand still if you are looking for a job, but send out your curriculum vitae, do lots of interviews, don't lose hope because when you least expect it, you will be able to receive that phone call, that very interesting and pleasant piece of news that will open new doors, new horizons before your eyes. Choose to be yourself but cultivate your own qualities by studying and appreciating those of other people from whom you can also learn something. The sky is good for laying the foundations for the start of a new professional activity, but only if you act before the end of May. Jupiter transiting in Cancer at the beginning of June will not be negative at all; on the contrary, transiting in the sixth house, it will give you a professional environment in which you will feel appreciated and loved and in which sharing opinions will be very beautiful and constructive. Don't underestimate some agreements which could be very advantageous, even if they don't seem so at first. If you work in the arts you may notice a considerable increase in work, new clients, see your expectations improve and realise that you are much more appreciated and admired than in the past. This can be a year of strong growth.

Luck - fitness Aquarius 2025: Jupiter transiting in Gemini and therefore in your fifth sector of the zodiac for the first 5 months of the year means that you will find time to have fun, to spend a lot of time with your hobbies or your friends, with your family, even alone but without thinking too much about work, thus relaxing. Unfortunately, Jupiter will no longer be in Gemini in the summer, but its new transit will be absolutely positive for daily life, to strengthen the body, to get out of an illness, a health problem. The energies will be in decline especially with Mars in Leo from April 19 to June 17, 2025 and with the same planet in Scorpio from September 23 to November 4, 2025 and that is why in these periods it will be important to take care of the diet, not to exaggerate with any vices that would be better to eliminate completely. With your energies in decline, it is better not to travel too much, especially if you have long and exhausting journeys for your body and mind. The first part of the year will be good for receiving lucky breaks, which could, but only in some cases, involve sums of money from gambling winnings, but don't spend too much money because just a few euros is enough to be lucky. Most probably, if you are parents, you will rediscover a very good harmony with your children with whom you will be able to spend much more time and if, on the other hand, you are not parents, and therefore do not have children, you will feel like children yourself, with that desire to return to being the children of many years ago, carefree and absolutely well prepared to discover new things in the world. Know how to have fun, also because you are very independent and free and you will feel these sensations even more during this year. If anyone tries to lock you in, to block your innate sense of independence, you will only suffer the consequences because no one will be able to stop your evolutionary path in this sense.

And if you have ascendant in ...

Aries: an excellent sky awaits you during the first part of the year and having the solar sign in Capricorn you can also take advantage of the first 5 months with the support of Jupiter from the zodiac sign Gemini. This seems to be a year more positive than negative and in which to accomplish a lot of things that are important to you.

Taurus: definitely a great year in reference to the second part but what will happen according to the planets is that you will be able to cultivate in the 7 months following June thanks to Jupiter in Cancer. Physical fitness improves and you also recover from some ailments. You can reach important social levels in some cases.

Gemini: do not underestimate this year that can be full of small and great satisfactions in reference to both its first part and its second part with the new transit of Jupiter that improves the physical, gives much more energy and allows you to socialize more since you do not like to be around people much.

Cancer: the best phase of the year for you is the one related to the months from June to December 2025 with Jupiter and Uranus but also Saturn absolutely positive both for the solar sign and the ascendant. Great moments await you with interesting goals to be achieved thanks to a renewed commitment.

Leo: you have to fight during the second part of the year against some windmills that will not be effectively present in the first part of the year with Jupiter in Gemini that will form a splendid sextile with your zodiacal ascendant. A tiring year but also satisfying then.

Virgo: with Jupiter in Gemini you can make progress at work, but talking about Saturn, unfortunately, we must say that the body will be affected by fatigue, the responsibilities that you have decided to accept and then you must find time to rest and recover energy.

Libra: it is not easy to live a year in which you try to do many things but the results are poor, unsatisfactory. That's how this new year 2025 will be, absolutely anonymous after June and in which you will not be able to do many things, you will not be able to get those satisfactions for which you will work so hard.

Scorpio: the first part of the year will not be at all easy because of Jupiter in Gemini that could create some annoying personal situations and even a physical discomfort. In fact, this Jupiter may slow down your rise and make you fall victim to some vices.

Sagittarius: certainly the first thing that comes to mind is that the year will not be as you had planned because there could be numerous twists and turns, maybe small but still such as to create confusion inside your head and around you and in any area of your life, love, work, money, health.

Capricorn: pleasant moment between January and May in which you will feel certainly stronger physically and very determined professionally with the desire to reach excellent levels, further goals after having reached others previously. Second part of the year more anonymous, less interesting.

Aquarius: excellent sky with regard to the first part of the year with Jupiter in Gemini while the second part will actually be difficult and not easy to deal with an obvious drop in energy and uncertainties that will affect many areas of your life. Do not overstep the mark then.

Pisces: you should not hope to achieve all the goals set during a year in which the slow planets are partly favorable and partly not positive for you. If something positive comes along, accept it, but if nothing interesting comes along, proceed without losing hope.

PISCES

Love Pisces 2025: this year promises to be very complicated in its first part but with enormous glimmers of light in the second part when Jupiter will finally be in Cancer and the heaviness of Saturn will disappear for a few months, precisely for the summer months in which it will transit through Aries before returning to Pisces. Your love life, which was already very difficult last year and in the first months of this new year, will improve. If the crisis is not important, then it will be possible to find a solution, to recover, to find harmony again, but if it has reached the point of no return, then Jupiter in Cancer could be, for many of you, a great liberation. With Jupiter in Gemini, therefore, many couples could break up but already in the summer your heart will probably open up to new adventures and new love stories. Obviously, if you are not able to put an end to your relationship which has become unbearable, then Jupiter in Cancer will only slightly improve the relationship from the summer onwards, but it will always be in the balance and Saturn in Pisces in September will ask you to make a final decision. In short, you cannot run away from some important choices. On the other hand, for those who are lonely and cannot yet find someone, it must be said that Mars will be very good in spring and until April 18, 2025. Here your romanticism but also your passion can come out and attract someone and this despite the quadrature of Jupiter. Obviously you cannot hope to meet, at least in the first 5 months, a person who will become fundamental in your life, but if you know how to cultivate certain friendships, then from June who knows, the great love, the soul mate may knock on the door of your heart in an unexpected way, when you least expect it. All of you must prepare yourselves for love, open your hearts without fear of not being loved because this will not happen.

Job - career - money Pisces 2025: this is an excellent time to understand where you are going wrong and what you can do to improve. In reality, this moment will arrive with Jupiter in Cancer from June, but astrological experience teaches us that the planet of changes also acts a few months earlier and so, from spring, do not underestimate the desire that will grow within you and that will probably lead you towards a series of necessary changes. You will probably be tired of some of the professional situations you are experiencing and you will want to change direction. Opportunities will arrive in the spring, but even better in the summer when there will no longer be a conjunction with Saturn in your sky. You may also be fired or change jobs in the same company where you work, and if these things happen before Jupiter arrives in Cancer, they may not be satisfactory for many of you. Remember that this is also a year in which to renew something in your life because Uranus is in Taurus, therefore in sextile with your sign of the zodiac. This is why you will increasingly feel the need to change, to take other professional paths, even to change city, even work, and to study, to improve your qualities so that you will be ready when the opportunities come. The year therefore begins with a certain amount of dissatisfaction, but this will be followed by considerable satisfaction and an increase in optimism, and no one will be able to stop you from moving forward in your career. Beware only of the first few months of 2025, when Jupiter could put unreliable people in your way, who may only want to deceive you and make you lose a lot of money. Be wary and trust only a few people but above all your innate intuition. Probably if you have a legal case or another bureaucratic problem, you will have to wait until the end of the year to receive good news, but in the meantime do not let yourself be overwhelmed by discouragement.

Luck - fitness Pisces 2025: as with other signs of the zodiac, this year for you is divided into two parts. The first part, lasting about five months, will be very damaging to your physical and mental energies, and then there will be a second part, fortunately longer, from June to December, which will be much better, during which you will be able to recover all your energies and make positive progress in many areas of your life. The most stressful moments for the body but also when you risk being excessively agitated, nervous, are those with Mars in Virgo, from June 18 to August 6, 2025, and in Sagittarius from November 5 to December 15, 2025. Until April 18, instead, Mars will be in Cancer and its trigon will help you a lot to recover energies. Another good period in which to feel in good physical shape, but above all psychophysical, is that with the red planet in Scorpio from September 23 to November 4, 2025. This is one of the most important and emotionally involving moments because Jupiter will be in Cancer and the trigon between the planet of luck and the planet of energy, of creativity, could lead you to do something new, to dedicate yourself to a new hobby, to do some work around the house, in short you will have so much energy that must be used in the best possible way. The second half of the year is much better and you will forget about a very complicated beginning of 2025. Try to be yourself, don't change inside if you don't feel the need to, because people must appreciate who you are without changing anything in you. Also travelling will be very important and crucial during this year and luck could accompany you during the summer. Not only fun, then, between June and August, but a lot of work to carry out those ideas and projects that will certainly be very profitable by the end of the year. Physical improvements, an effective cure for some ailments that have made your life very difficult during the first part of the year.

Aries: a good moment for all of you in reference to the second half of the year that will give you what you could not have during the first 5 months of this year but also during the last months of the old year. So a period of great rebirth in which to feel more serene and ready for battle in every sector.

Taurus: you take advantage of the presence of Jupiter in Cancer still after June 2025 and try to avoid making too many mistakes because if it is true that the transit of Jupiter in Cancer will still be good, according to this planet you will achieve greater satisfaction in the second half of the year. Very passionate loves are coming.

Gemini: Jupiter transits your zodiacal ascendant in the first part of the year bringing greater strength, greater sense of security and also allowing you to recover opportunities lost in the past. Surely your morale will be very low at the beginning of the year but even if you start off badly we are convinced that 2025 will end well.

Cancer: nobody likes to be alone and for you in particular, people who are very susceptible, passionate, seductive and romantic, it is important to have a person by your side and finally during this year there will be interesting opportunities to realize your dream of love. Lightning encounters.

Leo: with this configuration between the Sun and the zodiacal ascendant, you will suffer especially in the second half of the year and you must be very careful not to make too many mistakes, not to overestimate yourself and not to believe too much in some people who will make promises they absolutely cannot keep. Be cautious.

Virgo: that Saturn in opposition to your zodiacal ascendant does not help much and does not allow you to be efficient in various areas of life, especially in the work. Much better in the second half of the year but Saturn moves between Pisces and Aries so know to have your feet firmly on the ground and do not be utopian.

Libra: this cannot be a great year because Jupiter and Saturn are not in excellent positions with respect to both the solar sign and the zodiacal ascendant but at least in the first part of the year Jupiter that forms a trigon with your natal Sun brings more vitality, sense of security and a lot of optimism.

Scorpio: you have a lot of confidence in your qualities and in this sense you are right as Saturn helps to consolidate many of your achievements. Too bad for the first part of the year, for the first 5 months in fact, which will be tiring and will bear less fruit but with Jupiter in Cancer everything will improve.

Sagittarius: Jupiter will not be benevolent with you on a physical level, especially in the second half of the year as it transits in Cancer and will no longer form an opposition with your zodiacal ascendant. Do not be too optimistic, too exuberant and stay away from unnecessary illusions in which you may fall.

Capricorn: if we analyze the astrological sky then we must say that from January to May you will be able to reap many satisfactions, be particularly happy, cheerful, lucky and reach those goals that perhaps you set a couple of years ago. Jupiter in Cancer does not bring much news.

Aquarius: an excellent moment with Jupiter in Gemini that allows you to be reborn in the first part of the year and after suffering the uncertainties and disappointments of last year at its beginning with Jupiter in quadrature to the Ascendant. A year not easy but in which you will be able to be reborn.

Pisces: super period for work and great assumptions of responsibility with that Saturn flying over your zodiacal ascendant. It's not an easy period for your physical strength, for your interiority because Saturn wants something from you and what he wants includes a lot of hard work.
