Love aries autumn - winter 2023 2024: autumn starts quite well with a Venus in Leo until October 9th and so if you intend to fall in love, to fix some problems with your partner, to strengthen the union of love then take advantage of this period because the end of autumn instead he will see an opposite Venus that will not be easy to manage and if you have not been able to fix some problems, you will find yourself having to fight, to experience moments of misunderstanding, to badly manage a relationship that could therefore worsen. Fortunately, winter begins with a Venus in Sagittarius, really very pleasant, particularly seductive and if you are alone you will almost certainly be able to meet people, you will be able to assert your qualities as a seducer. The new year still creates a phase of tension with Venus in Capricorn from January 24th to February 16th 2024 but the end of the period is absolutely good to be able to recover and feel more loved. Opposite Mars until 12 October 2023 asks you to pay close attention to distractions, not to overdo it by wasting energy and to be very careful when driving a car. To recover physical and mental strength it will be necessary to wait for the month of December and the beginning of January which will see Mars in Sagittarius. GEMINI

Love gemini autumn - winter 2023 2024: speaking of a sentimental situation we must say that the beginning of autumn is quite positive with Venus in Leo and who knows if you can live a very passionate love or meet a particularly sensual, generous, selfless person with you. Another good period for feelings is the one that goes from November 9 to December 4 2023 with Venus in Libra but we must say that Mars in this period will be quite cumbersome and therefore you will need to be very careful in how you interact with the person you love. The end of winter is great with Venus in Aquarius to fall in love again, to better express what you have in your heart but perhaps the risk will be that of being too superficial and living more than a love story. Quarrels, misunderstandings, are likely from 30 December to 23 January 2024, therefore immediately after the Christmas period. If you are alone there will still be opportunities but it will be important to exclude those that are too superficial.

Career - money gemini autumn - winter 2023 2024: Jupiter and Uranus are behind you all fall and winter. We know that the twelfth astrological sector is the one that represents obstacles, complications, difficulties to be faced but we must not think that you will live a difficult period, indeed Jupiter and Uranus will help you to overcome every difficulty, every complication, they will allow you to better express your professional skills . The climate in the workplace will not be excellent but every obstacle can be overcome with commitment. The real problem comes from the square of Saturn from the zodiac sign Pisces who asks not to abandon a job to try other professional paths. His passage to the tenth house can mean a dismissal, a removal from the workplace, a great intolerance to live and work with some colleagues. Do not make utopian projects and know how to settle for what you have without asking for more because at this moment you cannot ask for more.

Luck - fitness gemini autumn - winter 2023 2024: the planet of great luck is not on your side but you don't have to be sad for that. The sky is not so favorable in this autumn and winter period but you can avoid problems by knowing how to be satisfied with what you have. Do not take the longest step, do not be too optimistic, in particular do not think you are superman because the energies will serve you to face very complicated times. Mars in Libra until 12 October 2023 indicates an early autumn full of grit, creativity and excellent energy but continuing with the period you will notice a sharp decline and it will be important not to neglect any physical ailments. In order to recover energy and feel more daring and optimistic, unfortunately it will be necessary to wait for the end of winter with Mars in Aquarius. To avoid stressful trips from November 25, 2023 to January 4, 2024 with opposite Mars that will not make you live a very exciting Christmas. Do not take the step longer than the leg.

Already with the beginning of autumn, send your resume, know how to show people who can help you how much you are worth because that Jupiter in the eleventh house indicates unexpected help, support from people who will believe in you and in your qualities. Many of you are starting to think about a project to carry out, a project that could upset your professional career and allow you to reach very high levels of satisfaction. LEO

Love leo autumn - winter 2023 2024: beautiful beginning of autumn with Venus in your zodiac sign even if only until October 9, 2023. So autumn could be full of opportunities to meet people, to try new sensations, to better express what you have in your heart but it is not necessary forget that Jupiter is in quadrature with the zodiac sign Taurus and therefore delude oneself will be probable. Do not go to meet impossible loves especially during the Christmas period when it will be necessary to keep your feet firmly planted on the ground even if you already have a person by your side. If you are lonely hearts, other interesting periods to meet people will be those in which Venus will be in Libra, from November 9th to December 4th 2023 and in Sagittarius, Sagittarius from December 30th to January 23rd 2024. Charm in sharp increase in these periods and with the support of Mars you will be very sensual and magnetic. Very bad the end of winter 2024 with Venus opposite along with Mars. Quarrels and disappointments are to be expected.

Career - money leo autumn - winter 2023 2024: as far as the profession is concerned, these two periods will not be so promising. Unfortunately, Jupiter in quadrature for the whole year together with Uranus does not facilitate new professional paths and perhaps we will have to settle for what you are doing, without making utopian projects. In fact, with Jupiter and Uranus in transit in the tenth astrological sector, the risk of being fired or leaving one job to take on another that will not bring much luck is very high. So you need to have your feet firmly planted on the ground and not overestimate your intuitions, your skills and qualities but try to move forward in small steps, keeping what you have, without leaving situations that may also be no longer rewarding as in the past but which still allow you to earn and move forward. If you do not have a job yet, opportunities will come but they will not be what you are hoping for and you must therefore be able to be satisfied. Don't leave the old road for a new one.

Luck - fitness leo autumn - winter 2023 2024: autumn and winter represent about half of the year and therefore it is clear that you too will experience moments of intense fatigue alternating with moments of great energy that you can use to face the various challenges. January 2024 will also be a good time to try to meet new people and fall in love. We must say that having Mars in your zodiac sign until October 12, 2023 will allow you to be very fascinating, full of an overflowing sensuality and a magnetism that will allow you to conquer anyone. In fact, Venus and Mars in this period will be great allies and only after mid-February 2024 until about the first 10 days of March 2024 will you have another such lucky period for love. SCORPIO

Love scorpio autumn - winter 2023 2024: on a sentimental level we are not facing a very large period as we must always consider that if it is true that Venus will assume positive astrological positions over the months, it is also true that Jupiter and Uranus will be opposites. The consequence of this very complicated sky for almost all of you will be to risk arguing in a very important way and to separate, to leave your partner. In fact, the opposite Uranus can create that occasion of misunderstanding that becomes impossible to resolve. Separations, divorces but also simply moments in which the love relationship will be in the balance but everything can be overcome if you and your partner are very mature people and you intend to continue your journey together. The best period will be the one that Venus in Scorpio will see from December 5th to December 29th 2023. Christmas will in fact be a good time to try to woo someone without deluding too much. Jupiter in opposition can indeed bring illusions.

Career - money scorpio autumn - winter 2023 2024: difficult to say what will happen with Jupiter and Uranus in opposition to your natal Sun but probably many of you for some reason will be forced to leave your job, will have to give up what you usually do to face a less interesting, more demanding and in which they will earn much less. The ideal thing to do would be not to give up your job to try new paths but in many cases the climate that is generated in the workplace will be so complicated, impossible to deal with, to live that you will decide to change. The risk of being a victim of scams is very high so stay away from those people who want to deceive you and above all who make promises that they will not be able to keep. Your feet must be firmly planted on the ground and daydreams must be avoided absolutely. Do not invest in real estate, do not buy expensive tools for the job, do not waste economic resources unnecessarily.

Luck - fitness scorpio autumn - winter 2023 2024: among the zodiac signs that will be most affected but in a negative way by the double transit of Jupiter and Uranus in Taurus, there is also you. Fortunately, Saturn in Pisces supports you and in some cases thanks to a good personal maturity you will be able to recover strength of mind but we can confirm that this is a year in which great luck will forget you and with the opposite Jupiter you will have to stay a lot pay attention to your body too, given that the risk of abusing certain vices, of over-eating by increasing body weight, will be very high. Mars in Scorpio from 13 October to 24 November 2023 and in Capricorn from 5 January to 13 February 2024 will mark two excellent periods to recover energy and have more confidence in yourself and therefore take advantage of these weeks. To avoid too tiring and stressful journeys, especially if you are no longer young. Legal, bureaucratic, judicial problems that can surround this very complicated period.

The transit of Jupiter and Uranus in the sixth house is not very important for love but it confirms that you will be able to create a good climate within the family and consequently also with the person you love everything will flow smoothly. The early part of autumn is very good with Venus in Libra to meet people and try new courtships but with Venus in Sagittarius from December 30th to January 23rd 2024 you will experience the best time of the year to demonstrate your magnetism. Between February and March 2024 you will have Venus and Mars together in Aquarius and therefore in sextile with your natal Sun, therefore another excellent period to try a loving approach, to meet people but you will have to be careful not to be too superficial and not to have more than a love story.

Career - money sagittarius autumn - winter 2023 2024: excellent time for work because with Jupiter in transit in the sixth astrological sector, various lucky opportunities may arrive to be seized and in any case what you are doing will continue in a rather positive way. The professional environment will be gratifying but with Uranus together with Jupiter in the sixth house, renovations and changes in the professional sphere are to be expected, more than anything else positive. If you are without a job then the periods to do interviews, to send your resume and be contacted, will be many and therefore do not give up in front of the first obstacle and the first refusal but continue. Definitely useful moment to carry on a project you have been working on for a long time but don't do everything by yourself. CAPRICORN

Love capricorn autumn - winter 2023 2024: October and December 2023 are two great months to experience a new love, to meet someone who can attract your attention. In reality, autumn does not start very well and some difficulties in love could be important but only if you have experienced a very critical period of crisis in the past. If, on the other hand, in the past the relationship was not very complicated to live then it is only small quarrels and misunderstandings that can be resolved with dialogue. If you are alone, try to take advantage of the periods mentioned above to approach someone you like and to strengthen your love relationship if you are already in love with someone. The most beautiful period, however, will be the one that will see Venus in Capricorn from January 24th to February 16th 2024 and Mars in Capricorn from January 5th to February 13th 2024. Great passion, a very strong sex appeal able to attract anyone to you. In short, the end of winter is really on fire.

Career - money capricorn autumn - winter 2023 2024: the double trine of Jupiter and Uranus from the zodiac sign Taurus but also the sextile of Saturn from the zodiac sign Pisces, says that you can live an extremely important period, a whole profitable year but certainly an autumn and a winter in which to sow and harvest at the same time. New perspectives in the working sector, the need to study more to be prepared when the right opportunities arrive that must not be wasted. In fact, if you are looking for a job, you need to be very prepared so as not to suffer future disappointments. Your qualities will be more appreciated and your talents will come out predominantly compared to other people and your past. Change of duties within your company or office, improvements, salary increases, gratifications, praise, city changes, transfers but to take on more important roles and more suited to your qualities. Saturn will allow you to mature and evolve with confidence.

Luck - fitness capricorn autumn - winter 2023 2024: one of the most important and fortunate years but we always reiterate how luck with you is not always a concept to be used because here we are not dealing with events that come unexpectedly from destiny but events that in some way you have contributed to bring about. The choices you will make in this autumn and winter period, the very responsible decisions you will make, will allow you to reach unimaginable goals before spring 2024 arrives. Optimism is growing strongly even if we must say that the tiredness during many months will make itself felt and not it must absolutely be underestimated. In particular, the beginning of autumn is rather tiring with Mars in quadrature with the zodiac sign Libra, while full of grit and energy as well as excellent intuitions and creativity will be the period with Mars in Capricorn from January 5 to February 13 2024, the best time of year to sow and reap the rewards of your sowing.

AQUARIUS

Love aquarius autumn - winter 2023 2024: if we observe the planets Jupiter and Uranus which will be in Taurus throughout the autumn and winter period, therefore in quadrature with your natal Sun and Saturn which will be in transit in Pisces, then we realize that all of you will not experience such an exciting phase but on the contrary, you could face a lot of intolerance, disappointments and disappointments even in the love sector. If you are experiencing a love story that Saturn in Pisces asks you to dream less, to idealize your partner less but to look at reality as it is and to live it as it is. Autumn begins very badly with the Moon in Leo but we must say that many transits of Venus and Mars will be favorable and therefore the opportunities to meet someone who can ignite our passion, make us fall in love, will be many, only that some of them could bring disappointments important and get you locked up in yourself. If you are already in a love affair but in crisis, separation is very likely.

Career - money aquarius autumn - winter 2023 2024: sudden, unexpected and unpleasant changes are to be expected during this autumn and winter period as well. Unfortunately, Jupiter and Uranus together in quadrature are hard to bear and in addition to a considerable difficulty in carrying out professional ideas and projects, you will have to face family problems concerning the home. Who knows that you will be forced to move to a new home, to settle down, to do important work in the one you live in or a mother, a father will need your support. Possible job loss, possible dismissal then or a worsening climate with colleagues and tasks that are not very rewarding. Do not give up your job prospects but know how to avoid utopian projects and with your feet firmly planted on the ground as Saturn asks, especially in reference to expenses, know how to work along well-established paths. Very risky financial investments to be absolutely avoided.

Luck - fitness aquarius autumn - winter 2023 2024: one of the worst years because not only Jupiter but also Uranus that meet in Taurus, therefore in quadrature, not to mention Saturn which, passing through Pisces, decreases earnings and increases expenses very consistently. Hoping to receive lucky events from destiny is a pure illusion because this will hardly happen but you know how to be very creative people, independent and with a thousand ideas that are often different and strange compared to those of others. Fortunately, the physicist will respond very well to these complicated months with Mars offering many energies until October 12, 2023, from November 25, 2023 to January 4, 2024 and from February 14 to March 22, 2024 when it will be respectively in Sagittarius and in Aquarius. These will be important times to regain optimism and greater self-confidence, qualities that unfortunately you will often miss in this year full of small and big drastic changes. Attention to some legal case, to some judicial problem.

PISCES

Love pisces autumn - winter 2023 2024: who knows that many of those who are without a love, can meet their soul mate during a journey, a move. In fact, with Jupiter and Uranus in transit in the third house throughout the autumn and winter it will be easy to meet people who may not be from the same place as you, from your city but not so far away. We foresee loves that arise suddenly and that generate great enthusiasm, a lot of passion and great emotions. Do not underestimate the meetings you will make because Saturn is also favorable, being in your sky and says that if you are very responsible, you will not be afraid to mature together with the person you love and you will accept the responsibilities, you will be able to live a great love, a relationship like the one you often see in romantic movies. Even those who are already in love with someone can experience an autumn and above all a winter, spectacular, full of beautiful joys and emotions to live together.

Career - money pisces autumn - winter 2023 2024: if you have not yet found a job, if you have to study, face exams, questions, very tiring and important competitions, then don't give up right now, in a period in which Jupiter and Uranus can help you make everything concrete.
